

Easter Craft Idea: Adult Easter Egg Hunt...

So I keep seeing blog posts with lovely and beautiful Easter crafts for the kids, which are brilliant, but I can't help but feel us grown ups are being left out...

Everyone loves an Easter egg hunt, no matter what age you are, so here is one for the grown ups, with a "Life is Knutts" spin on it of course!

Enjoy!

(Feel free to upload your Easter egg hunt photos over Easter (alcohol or chocolate based) to Instagram, using the hashtag #amosteggcellentidea and I'll endeavour to wake myself my inevitable sugar (and gin) induced coma to create a montage of them all!)
