

My entry for this weeks #pointshoot

My entry for this weeks #pointshoot is this little gem of a photo of my toddler, Ben.

Sadly the weather has taken a nosedive the last couple of days, but before then, it had been pretty glorious.

This photo captures my toddler during an afternoon in the garden with the sprinkler on, such fun. And it meant the house stayed tidy as the Tasmanian Toddler was outside almost all day. Win, win! ☐
