

Deer with a beer: Day 17

Rudolph took the opportunity this evening to take Ruby on a date night, to rekindle their youth and the spark they once had.

(Plus I've been out all night and writing about this bloody deer just hasn't happened today...) ☐

Rudolph took her to see the new star wars movie and it was AMAZING.

However, if Rudolph reveals any spoilers, he will be shot and turned into a selection of steaks.

Rudolph is back to his winning ways.

The force is strong in this one, and something has definitely been awakened...if you catch my drift ☐
