

Deer with a Beer: Day 13

Well how can I sum today up?

I can't sum it up in one word so I'll share this with you all to explain...

I was wrapping my middle sons class pass the parcel today. A main prize in the middle and then a layer of 29 other small prizes to keep everyone happy (it's the done thing these days isn't it). It took over an hour of wrapping and as I finished layer 29...I ran out of wrapping paper. One, chuffing layer from the end. Would you Adam and Eve it?!

So, that's how my day went. Let's find out if Rudolph had a better one.

Here's day 13 of Deer with a Beer.
