Things Mums do at the Weekend...

1. Wish it was Monday already.
2. Look at Pinterest planning their imaginary holidays and dream house decor.
3. Consider not tidying up all weekend in protest but end up caving in after 15 minutes.
4. Think about going for a run then see it's too late (8am) and there may be people about who may see you out and about all sweaty and looking like an overheated frankfurter clad in Lycra so settle on eating a bacon sandwich whilst looking on Pinterest at fitness pins.
5. Drink Gin.
6. Mutter "For F$%ks Sake" under their breath at least 20 times before 10am.
7. Drink Wine.
8. Close their eyes and pretend they're alone whilst doing a wee when, in actual fact, the whole family is in the bathroom with them.
9. Drink Vodka.
