

Blog mention over on Double the Monkey Business...

The lovely blogger over at a rather brilliant blog called Double the Monkey Business has given me a little mention in her latest post about Guilty Pleasures...

No, I'm not her guilty pleasure (oh, er...) but she has said some super things about me and my blog and mentioned today's post I did about how scary the Easter Bunny is...

You can read the blog post over at Double the Monkey Business HERE, and do have a look at some of her other posts – she's a brilliant writer and often makes me laugh and cry in the space of one blog post.

Thanks for the mention and thanks to all you lovely Knutters for reading.xx
